JAMES L. YOUNG.

Jim L. Young, age about 65, a well known and highly respected citizen of this county, who lived in Talley's hollow four miles southeast of Gainesboro, was found dead in his bed early Wednesday morning. A second stroke of paralysis is said to have caused his death. He was first stricken in May 1917, and had been an invalid since that time. His general health had been on the decline for the past several month and his death had been expected for some time by those who were familiar with his condition.

Funeral service was conducted today (Thursday) by Bro. John Fox. Interment in the Stafford cemetery.
The deceased is survived by one son, J. T. and two daughters, Mrs. L. W. Haney of Coalinga, Cal., and Mrs. Joe Jackson of this county. He is also survived by a brother and two sisters, Zeb Young of near Galatin, Mrs. W. W. Jackson of Hartsville, Rt-4, and Mrs. J. E. Gailbreath of Cookeville, and friends and relatives by the score.
